

Fox Theatre July 3rd, 2004

Independence YEAH! Joined by Mountains of Venus and our friend Jair, we threw down a pre-fourth party with y'all.

Jason helped make the giant fireworks.

The load in included the Wizard pinball game, fresh from Lyon's Classic Pinball. Thanks Kevin and crew!!!. Kevin also generously offered free games to show goers who went up to Lyons to visit his shop.

Our sticker man Buskee brought and waved a flag designed by Jofrid Knoebber in Chicago, and Bongo made balloon hats for anyone desiring such.

Jair sound checkin'.

Mountains of Venus opened up with an acoustic set.

And then Shanti got it on.

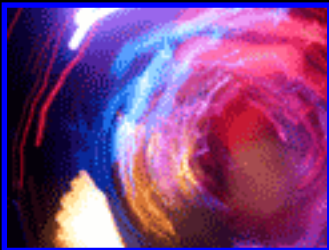

Jair did his thang as a tweener, a smorgasboard of spoken word, pre-recorded freak outs, and layered guitar shredding.

Shanti rocked out pinball wizard for the second set, complete with pinball machine unveiling and audience participation (playing pinball during the song).

Thanks to Rommel and Ashley for the photos!.
